

Guest Tutors

Aleksandar Zankin

Aleksandar is an award-winning master of Bulgarian dance who, after thirty years experience of dancing, choreographing and directing in Bulgaria moved to U.S.A., where he now teaches character dance at the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre.

Kate Grace

Kate's Moroccan and French roots and family background of dance provided a base on which she has built years of learning and teaching dance from many countries. She now teaches traditional French dances in Dunedin.

Hine Poa

Hine has been a teacher of Maori language for more than 40 years and has tutored and performed with many kapa haka groups.

Jonathan Berkahn

Jonathan has been training choirs and singers for over a decade. This workshop is a chance for you to exercise your vocal chords as well as the rest of your body, singing songs from around the world.

Sylvia Edge-Perkins

Sylvia is a Wellington based Pilates and belly dance instructor with over five years' teaching experience, and a passion for understanding the histories and intricacies of dance and movement styles.

Notes

Folkdance Camp is a wonderful opportunity to dance with a large group of dancers and to learn from two authentic and quite different teachers. The evening socials are for all ages and levels of experience, with the thrill of dancing to live music! To gain maximum enjoyment from the French Bal, come to the preparatory Sunday afternoon French dance workshop.

Morning and afternoon teas will be provided as part of the sessions, and meat-free lunches will be available for people who register in advance.

The AGM for FDNZ members will be held prior to the Revision session on Monday morning.
